

Cities of the world

Στο κεφάλαιο 3 του βιβλίου ασχοληθήκαμε με το διαθεματικό project των πόλεων του κόσμου, συνδυάζοντας γνώσεις από τη γεωγραφία και τα αγγλικά.

Στόχος ήταν να δημιουργήσουν οι μαθητές μία ενημερωτική-διαφημιστική παρουσίαση για τον τόπο τους (ή οποιοδήποτε άλλο μέρος του κόσμου ήθελαν). Οι μαθητές εργάστηκαν ατομικά στο σπίτι. Η έρευνά τους πραγματοποιήθηκε κυρίως μέσω διαδικτύου και εγκυκλοπαιδειών για την ανεύρεση του πληροφοριακού και οπτικού υλικού, το οποίο συνέθεσαν σε αφίσες μεγέθους A4.

Budapest and its BEAUTY

Budapest is a beautiful city in Hungary and over 140,000+ people live there. People often go outside their homes unlike Introverts, people who live in Budapest, (people who live in Budapest are extroverts). Budapest has beautiful sights, one of them is the bearded dragon that was originally made in 1824 by an architect. When I traveled there, I always went to their famous chocolate covered fruit market. My favourite thing from there was the white chocolate covered strawberry with edible glitter.

I've been to Budapest before so nothing here is from the Internet.

LONDON ♡

London is a very beautiful city in England and is situated in the north-west of Europe. It is the capital city of England where 7,172,036 people live! The city is built next to a river called Thames that flows in the south England, and pour in North Sea. London has very interesting sights, one of them is the Buckingham Palace, where Queen Elizabeth and her family, still live there. People in London speak over 300 languages.

Around the city and its river there are many mountains for hiking and other activities. One of them is the Helvellyn mountain and on the top of it, the view is amazing. The climate of London is the temperate oceanic and the surroundings are very beautiful.

The city is over 20 centuries old and it has a very high and famous tower, the Tower of London. Other sights are the Big Ben, the Eye of London with the amazing view of the city, the British Museum. There are many old and new houses and life there is peaceful, quiet and accommodations at hotels are dreamy. There are also bridges, towers, blocks of flats, unusual cars, shops and busy streets.

I love London and, when I grow up, I want to go at a London college to study! I wish I could go now!

Constantinople (Istanbul)

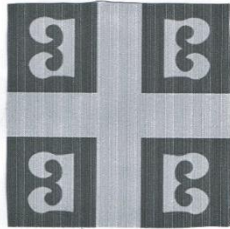

Constantinople was the capital of the Roman/Byzantine Empire (330-1453), and the Ottoman Empire (1453-1922). Officially renamed as Istanbul in 1930, the city today is the largest on Turkey.

Constantinople was built by Constantine The Great (King of the Byzantine Empire) on May 11, 330. And, in total, it has changed leadership so many times! (830-1204 Byzantine Empire, 1204-1261 Latin Empire, 1261-1453 Byzantine...again, 1453-1922 Ottoman Empire and 1923-present Republic Of Turkey).

Even today, politicians still argue if Constantinople or Istanbul is Greek or Turkish. On the future, we might see a scenario that Constantinople gets ceded to Greece!

Chrysovitza & Metsovo: The mountain village of the famous Panagia

The current village of Chrysovitza, a village in the province of Metsovo, has about 1,200 permanent residents and is located NE of Ioannina and W of Metsovo. Crossing the national road Ioannina-Trikala, going up 3 km, you reach the central square where the Monastery of Panagia Chrysovitziotissa is located. Your lungs receive the clean, cool air since you are at an altitude of 1500-1000 m. that the village is surrounded by lush mountains and forests. It is important that the village owes its name to the miraculous icon of the Virgin Mary who is also its protector. The fact that the village owes its name to the miraculous icon of the Virgin Mary, can be seen from the fact that in the past it was used as a seal or documents, as well as a representation of the Virgin Mary holding the infant. The stamp reads: ΣΦΡΑΓΙΣ ΤΗΣ ΠΑΝΑΓΙΑΣ ΥΡΥΣΟΒΙΤΖΑΣ.
