our school

My school is in Menidi. It is twenty-five years old. It is small. The school is on the ground floor. There are seven classrooms. There is a small playground. There is a computer room. There isn't a music room. There isn't a football field or a basketball court. There are six classes. There are twenty teachers. There are ninety-seven pupils.