BIOGRAPHY

- She was born on 24 July 1897
- She was a daughter of a lawyer and of a judicial
- While she was a child, she liked climbing on the trees, chasing the mice.
- People called her a tomboy.

HER FIRST FLYING

- Her first flight was in 1904, with the help of her uncle she built a ramp and fixed it to the roof of the small house which was located in her family's garden.
- Little Amelia's first recorded flight ended dramatically.
- She came out of the broken wooden box as a slag with ripped lips and torn dress.

Final flights and disappearance

- In 1937 Amelia was setting out to fly around the world, with her boyfriend Fred Noonan. On June they were beginning their journey. Departing from Miami and heading east.
- Along the way everything was fine until the plane started to run out of fuel and crashed into the middle of the Pacific Ocean.
