

Erasmus+ KA1 course by 'Enjoy Italy'
"Outdoor and STEAM Education.
Exploration, Study and Story-telling of the Cultural and Environmental Heritage" in Padua, Italy
12-16 July 2022

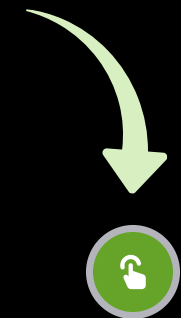

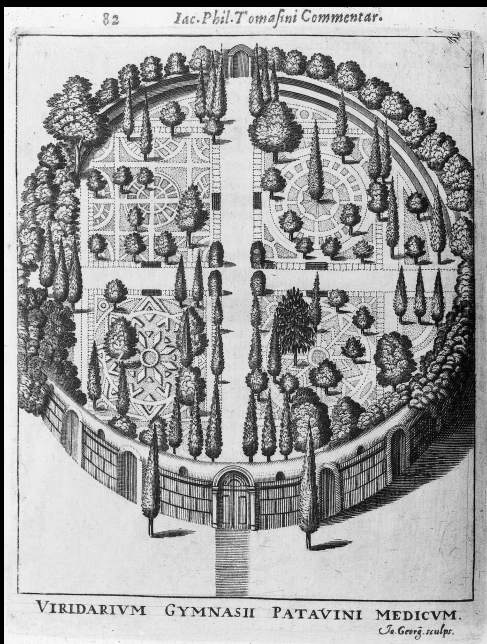

Eleni Despotidou &
Konstantina Papadogiannaki

about Padua

Botanical Garden
(Orto Botanico) Padua -
UNESCO World Heritage
Site since 1997

Padua's 14th century
fresco cycles -
UNESCO World Heritage
Site since 2021

12 kilometers of arcades
(in Romanesque, Gothic, Renaissance, Neoclassical and Modern style)
make Padua the 3rd longest arcaded city in Italy!

PARTICIPATION in the course:

Educators and adult trainers from Poland, Spain, Germany,
the Basque Country,
Hungary and Greece!

Educator: Alessandro Gariano

OBJECTIVES

- Exploring cultural heritage education within the context of cooperative learning, blended learning and flipped classroom,
- Acquiring non-formal education methods and tools to foster students' exploration, studying and representation of the cultural heritage and cultural awareness & expression key competence...

OBJECTIVES

- Fostering different creative languages and improving the usage of ICT and digital tools for story-telling and cultural heritage education,
- Stimulating reflection and innovative ideas for a sustainable cultural heritage education.

METHODOLOGY is characterized by:

- appropriate balance of theory and practice
- best practice case studies
- innovative, relevant and factual content
- horizontal and practical approach
- digital tools
- blended learning
- team building and teamwork
- project-based work
- practical workshop
- brainstorming
- role-play
- self and group assessment and evaluation.

The course STIMULATES:
Active Participation,
Proactiveness,
Interaction and Creative Use of the Material, while reinforcing a clear European dimension.

Thank you!

