

There was SILENCE e-v-e-r-y-w-h-e-r-e. Everybody had gone to see the unique blue full moon, except two kids, Luke and Liz, who were alone in an old bookshop in Diagon Alley, WORLD CORNER bookshop, famous for its haunted books. Liz was reading «Percy Jackson and the Olympians» and Luke was reading «The battle of the dragons and the greek gods». Suddenly, the doorbell rang and a shadow entered. Slowly, he left a note in front of the children. They read it curiously «Be here at 12:00. Let the magic begin.»

When the twelfth strike rang, the two books fell from their hands and the pages started turning. When they stopped at page 132, a strong light burst out. A GHOST battler showed up and announced «Nice to meet you, dear lady and gentleman! I'm here to take you to a world full of joy and happiness. The Carnival circus, that is only for those ones who have true happiness in their sources. Remember, when you enter this world that it's only a game!» They closed their eyes and when they opened them they were standing in a MAGICAL tent. In shock and admire they went to sit in the red velvet seats as the battler had told them. The show started and magical things happened.

FLYING elephants, lions, HAIRDRESSERS, mice making CHEESE and other WILD but still beautiful things. BUT, the last one was the funniest of all, Mr. Jack, who had DIED last year, was doing Pirouettes in the water. Until, a guy with a lion mask came in, KILLED him and started running. The crowd went in SILENCE. The two kids couldn't bear the scene and started Chasing the killer. He hadn't gone far so Luke and Liz managed to CATCH him. It was their TIME. The killer was about to get revealed. S-l-o-w-l-y they started pulling off his MASK when the strong light filled the space and they came back to ReAlItY, except it was morning. They had been in the BOOKSHOP all night!
